ANOTHER THANKSGIVING

Another Thanksgiving is at hand.

In ten months our President has worked wonders in restoring confidence in the minds of his countrymen. When he took office he found fear, poverty, distrust and unemployment everywhere. Traces of these remain, it is true, but in the short space of time since President Roosevelt took office, changes in the nation have taken place with such rapidity that the average mind has been able to grasp the significance and importance of only a few of them, whether we understand entirely workings of the corn-hog program, the NRA, the C. W. A. or not, we are all hoping for the best results from them. What we can better understand is the happening in our own community.

Local merchants, like the President found the morale of the community at a low ebb; like him, they set out to make it what it once was a live enterprising place where people worked together and played together. They are achieving that result because you and I are beginning to realize that we can get goods and services of the same quality at prices as low as at any place outside the community. Visit Walcott and you will find in the business men a desire not only to sell but to serve and to satisfy. After all mutual satisfaction brings friendship and friendship means a great deal in our daily transactions. There is no better time for Thanksgiving and when we sit down to our goose or turkey dinner, let us breathe a word of thanks that we live in a community that is trying to do its best to bring back better times.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Connie Joyce Dietz, celebrated her sixth birthday Saturday. There were sixteen schoolmates present. Games were played and prizes awarded to Mary Lea Struve, Darlene, Dona Mae and Lois Mae Dietz and Leone Porth.

In the evening cards were played and prizes awarded to Mrs. Amanda Strueben, Miss Emma Fischer and Mrs. Walter Bader.

TAXES

Tax the farmer, tax his fowl,
Tax the dog and tax his howl,
Tax his hen and tax her egg,
Let the bloomin' mudsill bge,
Tax his pig and tax his squeal,
Tax his boots, run down at heel;
Tax his plow, and tax his clothes,
Tax his rags that wipe his nose;
Tax his house and tax his bed,
Tax the bald spot on his head;
Tax the ox, and tax the ass,
Tax his "Henry," tax his gas
Tax the road that he must pass
And make him travel o'er the grass
Tax his cow, and tax his calf,
Tax him if he rades to laugh;
He is but a common man,
So tax, the cuss just all you can,
Tax the lab'rer, but be discreet,
Tax him for walking on the street,
Tax his bread, tax his meat,
Tax the shoes clear off the feet.
Tax the pay roll, tax the sale,
Tax all his hard-earned paper kale;
Tax his pipe and tax his smoke,
Teach him government is no joke.
Tax the coffins, tax the shrouds,
Tax the souls beyond the the clouds
Tax all business, tax the snops,
Tax the incomes, tax the stocks;
Tax the living, tax the dead,
Tax the unborn, before they're fed.
Tax the water, tax the air,
Tax the water, tax the air,
Tax the sunlight, if you dare.
Tax them all and tax them well.
And do your best to make life h—l.

THANKSGIVING

By Katherine Edelman

Father of all,
Thy name we bless,
For all good things
That we possess.
For dreams and hopes
That fill the soul.
For struggling toward
Some shining goal;
For every little
Joy that clinge
Around life's simple
Homey things.
Father of all,
Our praise we send,
To Thee, our best
And truest Friend,
We bless Thee for
The kindly yield
Of stretching plain,
Of wood and field.
And be our portion
Great or small,
We love and thank you
For it all.

WHY WORRY?

AFTER ALL, there are only two reasons for worrying, says an anonymous cross-roads philosopher in the Safe Worker. Either you are successful or you are a failure. If you are successful there is nothing to worry about. If you are a failure there are only two things to worry about; your health is either good or you are sick.

Now if your health is good there is nothing to worry about. If you are sick there are only two things to worry about; you are either going to get well or you are going to die.

Naturally if you are going to get well there is nothing to worry about. If you are going to die there are only two things to worry about; you are either going to Heaven or you are not going to Heaven.

Of course if you are going to Heaven there is nothing to worry about; If you are going in the other direction you will be so busy shaking hands with old friends that you won't have time to worry. So after all, why worry.

We understand that Phil Dietz is considering taking a course on reverse driving.

Phil: Those back windows on an auto are costly.

FULL LIFE FOR HIM

Doctor—"Your husband's not so well today, Mrs. Mahoney. Is he sticking to the simple diet I prescribed?"

Mrs. Mahoney—"He is not, sorr. He says he'll not be after starvin' himself to death just for the sake of living a few years longer.

A FEW SMILES

Women Analyzed

A chemist (a man) reports that he has at last been able to analyze woman and here it is: Symbol—W. O. A. member of the human family. Occurrence—can be found wherever man exists. Physical properties—all colors and sizes. Always appears in disguised condition. Surface of face seldom unprotected by coating of paint or film of powder. Boils at nothing and may freeze at any moment. However, melts when properly treated. Very bitter if not used correctly. Chemical properties—extremely active. Possesses great affinity for gold, silver, platinum and precious stones, of all kinds. Violent reaction when left alone by men. Ability to absorb all sorts of expensive food. Turns green when placed next to a better appearing sample. Ages very rapidly. Fresh variety has great magnetic attraction. (Note: Highly explosive and likely to be dangerous in inexperienced hands.)

Now will some woman reader analyze man?

Miss E. S. F., Iowa Coed, in turn analyzes man:

"Symbol—M. N. A member of the human family. (Don't brag; remember the evolution idea.) Occurrence—can be found near women or food. Physical properties—odd colors, sizes and shapes. Has an eye for "loud" tie and socks. Extremely vain and conceited. Must be pampered and petted. Falls easily and often. Demands much undue attention. Is extremely helpless at times; at others—is quite the caveman. Fond of davenoports. Chemical properties—very active; often quite wild. Sees red when certain women smile at other members of his sex. Has a tendency to part his hair. Imagines he possesses extraordinary ability to judge calves (not the barnyard variety, however). Really, it's marvelous how he can think of as much as he does with such a weak little brain."

Proves Its Durability Speed and Economy

Smashing all previous records for a transcontinental trip from coast to coast with a Ford V 8 stock model truck carrying a two ton load of merchandise and four drivers.

Despite bad driving conditions, the truck encountered snow and ice, the first day heavy rain storms in the Ozarks mountains, the second day, the final day, they plowed through sand and dust for more than twelve hours, making the entire trip in less than three days, using only 322 gallons of gas, 5 quarts of oil and one pint of water.

This is four hours faster than the fastest passenger service.

Let us demonstrate this truck to you.
